A Message from the Mayor

On behalf of the citizens of Vancouver, and my colleagues on City Council, I want to extend my warmest greetings to the 2015 Read me a Story exhibition.

Vancouver's strong multicultural fabric showcases the vibrancy of our city and provides citizens with the opportunity to engage in a variety of educational and cultural events. The Read Me a Story exhibition, featuring 1,200 fairytales and folktales from 120 countries, is an exciting addition to literacy in our community. By promoting literacy, education, the exploration of new cultures and by celebrating Canadian multiculturalism, this exhibition will be a thought-provoking and entertaining event for families and youth across the city.

I hope everyone has a wonderful time visiting the exhibition!

Yours truly,

Gregor Robertson
MAYOR
