

they entered bing and ouse guided
one chest,
as dazzled
take care
inued,
this open
young and ate
o see that,
n was the
of us. To thing.
"Here
nd do
e free se this matter
urges.
ell ill
r, son.
t last,
ly put
lock.
led

happily in
young
harvesting an duties, and the
made an ann attacked by Naturally, wa
to depart. S
room of o
that room,
sturdy hors
A little
he thought I would n
had forb
dec
palace
of th
th

Read Me a Story!

A joyful showcase of 1,200 folk tales and picture books from 120 countries

December 8-16, 2015 • Free Admission

MON-FRI, 10AM-9PM • SAT-SUN, 10AM-4PM

ROUNDHOUSE COMMUNITY CENTRE
181 Roundhouse Mews, Downtown Vancouver

EXPLORE a multicultural collection of folk tales and fairy tales from around the world

INTERACT with gigantic murals illustrating timeless folk tales

RESERVE your classroom or youth group for free BC curriculum-relevant workshops

www.readmeastory.ca

Presented by Soka Gakkai International Association of Canada www.sgicanada.org

Partners

